ICCP
IC CATHOLIC PREP

Learn. Lead. Serve. These ideas are distinctively Catholic—and they guide our efforts as we embrace an ever more expansive vision of IC Catholic Prep for a changing world.

As we prepare our students for the 21st century, we are called to think creatively about the role of a Catholic secondary education today. In a world increasingly divided over issues related to social justice, immigration, climate change and racial inequality, our mission is to form women and men who possess the knowledge, critical thinking skills, creativity, awareness and compassion needed to address these problems.

Through new and ongoing academic, athletic, extracurricular, faith formation and service opportunities, we are introducing our students to a positive and engaging worldview that calls them to test their limits, discover their gifts and then reciprocate these gifts and talents as women and men in service to others.

Elmhurst and the surrounding communities are our home and from our humble perch at 217 Cottage Hill, we strive to nurture the minds, bodies and spirits of our students so that they may flourish over a lifetime of service and love. It is because of your investment, your generosity, your wisdom, and your talent that we can sustain our mission.

As part of our commitment to provide the very best Catholic education, we are thrilled to lead IC Catholic Prep and continue the legacy of excellence that our friend and colleague, Ms. Pamela M. Levar instilled over 41 years of service to our community. We are blessed to count her and you among our most passionate supporters.

Thank you for all that you do to support our mission! You are making a true and lasting difference in the lives of our students, and we are deeply grateful.

invest in kids

Tax Credit Scholarship

Give a child the gift of an IC Catholic Prep education. Donate through Empower Illinois (the organization that manages Invest in Kids, providing access to private school education to children from disadvantaged households) and you will receive a state tax credit (75% of the amount donated), significantly increasing the impact of your gift.

A key component for creating a diverse and inclusive environment at IC Catholic Prep is our financial aid program, which helps students from a variety of backgrounds and circumstances benefit from a Catholic education, enriching the school experience for all.

In 2017, Illinois enacted the Invest in Kids Scholarship Tax Credit Program, offering approved Illinois individual and business taxpayers income tax credits in the amount of 75 percent of their total qualified contributions made to one or more Scholarship Granting Organizations (SGOs) during a taxable year.

Please contact ICCP President Mrs. Barbara Goworowski at 630-530-3485 with questions.

Once a Knight, Always a Knight

What does it mean to be a Knight at IC Catholic Prep?

It means that you spend the extra time with someone in need.
It means that you make ethical decisions.
It means that you focus on the end game and practice every day to reach your academic goals.
It means that you see potential in your life and in that of others.

It means that you are kind and generous.
It means that you are a part of a winning culture.
It means that you are part of the League of Knights, an alumni group comprised of more than 8,000 graduates.

It means that you are prepared for success in life.

distinguished alumni

Highlighting chosen alumni on their accomplishments, generosity in their donations to ICCP, college coursework, volunteerism, field of work, vocation and other redeeming qualities.

At the end of his senior year, Ryan Kenneally faced a unique dilemma, he had received an appointment to three US military academies—the Naval Academy, West Point U.S. Military Academy and Air Force Academy. A rare feat he had been working on since his early high school years at IC Catholic Prep.

Ryan believes in hard work and has always been driven to succeed. Getting into just one military academy is an achievement in itself, since it takes a bit more than having good grades and submitting an application. Applicants need to first receive an official nomination from their congressman, ace an interview with an officer at the school, and have exceptional grades and civic achievements to boot.

Ryan choose to attend the Naval Academy in the fall of 2019 joining his brother, Jimmy Kenneally '17, who just completed his sophomore year. In addition, he joins fellow IC Catholic Prep graduate Patrick Guinan '16 as a member of the 2018 CSFL champion Naval Academy Sprint Football Program.

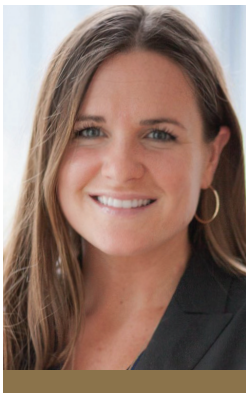
Ryan notes that his brother, Jimmy, has always been a tremendous influence on him and is one of the main reasons he chose to attend the Naval Academy. In addition, he appreciates the guidance and support he has received from family, friends and teachers.

Through his high school experiences at IC Catholic Prep, Kenneally discovered so much about himself as a student, three-sport athlete and member of numerous extracurricular activities and clubs. He received many opportunities to flourish as a person, through rigorous academic preparation, chances to thrive in athletics, including three state championships in football, and to grow spiritually in his Catholic faith.

Ryan is now thriving at the Naval Academy and his future looks bright. Like his classmates at IC Catholic Prep, he is an exceptional young person who embraces all that our school has to offer young men and women looking for a meaningful high school experience that prepares them for success in college and life."

Kenneally left some words of wisdom for his peers. "Get involved. Do everything that you want to do and more. At IC Catholic Prep, you can be as active as you want and the teachers, staff and community will value you and your contributions. It is a safe and supportive environment to explore new things."

In addition to his acceptance to 3 prestigious military academies, Ryan was also accepted to the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign and Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology.



Maureen (Brown) Hoersten, Class of 1998

Maureen (Brown '98) Hoersten is chief operating officer for LaSalle Network, a national staffing, recruiting and culture firm, where she is responsible for driving and managing new and existing business as well as overseeing recruiting functions. Through her leadership efforts, LaSalle has been honored with more than 100 culture and revenue-based awards, including the Inc. 5000 list for 11 consecutive years and Glassdoor's "Best Places to Work" list.

At the end of the day, most people have to work, according to Maureen; however, it's much better when you also have fun doing it. People appreciate laughter and a sense of humor, and those two things are especially important given that people can spend 50 or more hours a week at their job.

Her approach to hiring in part is about hiring those who can laugh at themselves. She looks to hire people with a sense of humor and a work ethic because it is important to take the job very seriously, but to also not take themselves very seriously."

Maureen joined LaSalle 16 years ago when the company had 14 people, starting in its then Schaumburg, Illinois, office. Today, she oversees 150 internal employees, a mix of recruiters and salespeople.

You never know where opportunity will arise. She always knew she wanted to go into sales and had traveled to LaSalle's office to apply for a sales job at a client. However, Maureen got along well with the recruiter and the company ended up hiring her for its own team instead.

Among her top achievements during the past year was a reorganization that changed the style of the organization and also led to double-digit growth.

In 2019, Maureen was named to Staffing Industry Analysts' 2019 "40 Under 40" list. Honorees are chosen for their passionate desire to better the lives of people they work with and their tireless determination to continue improving the staffing and recruiting industry.

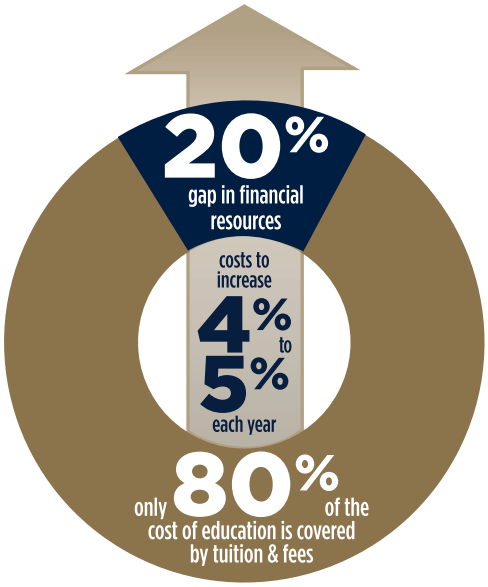
Additionally, she was named to the 2018 Global Power 150—Women in Staffing, a list of the 150 most influential women in North America, Europe and around the globe and has been recognized as one of Chicago Business Journal's "Women of Influence".

Maureen was an excellent student and was always driven to succeed. It is not surprising that she has gone on to earn professional honors and awards from near and far as she stands among an elite group of women making important contributions to society.

invest in our students

Your contribution to the Annual Fund provides peace of mind to students and families who understand the value of Catholic education.

2019-20 Annual Fund



It is one of the primary goals of IC Catholic Prep to welcome and support students who will benefit from a Catholic education. From academics and extracurricular activities, to athletics and visual/performing arts, your generosity helps us to continue to challenge, motivate, and empower our students to be the best version of themselves.

We draw students from Elmhurst and 38 surrounding communities. Seventy percent of our students receive financial support of over $1.4 million in the form of scholarship discounts, private donations, and assistance from IC Catholic Prep and the Diocese of Joliet. You can give young men and women the opportunity to attend a co-educational, college preparatory high school built on the solid foundation of the Catholic faith. While we are a school community with a rich history, legacies, and traditions dating back to 1936, ICCP is proud to nurture a model of independent thinking. With your help, we can provide more students with an education that builds confidence, leadership, and pride. The cost of tuition for the 2018-2019 school year was $11,700 and we know that the costs are expected to rise 4-5% each year. Tuition and fees support only 80% of the cost to educate each student.

Committing to send a student to a Catholic, college preparatory school is a significant financial undertaking. Your contribution to the Annual Fund provides peace of mind to students and families who understand the value of Catholic education.

The future of our students depends upon support from generous donors like you. For more information, please contact Barb Goworowski at 630.530.3485, or make your gift to the 2019-2020 Annual Fund today by using the enclosed envelope or giving online at iccatholicprep.org.

Farrelly Program

At IC Catholic Prep, we have a history of supporting each student in Mind, Body & Spirit as they develop the needed skills for their journey after high school. Consistent with this philosophy, we are excited to announce the launch of the Farrelly Program in August 2020. The Farrelly Program will allow IC Catholic Prep to provide a college-prep, Catholic education to our entire community of diverse learners. We do this with enhanced dedicated resources, including personnel, educational supports and accommodations.

The Farrelly Program is named in honor of the late Sister M. Megan Farrelly, OP. For 10 years, she devoted her time, talents, and resources to IC Catholic Prep. She was steadfast in her devotion to the work of our Lord and had a way of empowering students and finding the best in people. Sr. Megan believed that all students are capable, and advocated for all learners. We are proud to dedicate this program in her memory.

For more information about this program, email farrellyprogram@iccatholicprep.org.
